THE [Numb. 848.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the lateſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, Auguſt 6, 1761.

CADIZ, April 18.

THE Squadron which the King ordered to be equipped in our Port, ſet ſail laſt Tueſday with a fair Wind: It conſiſts of ſix Ships of the Line, and a Flute laden with Gun-powder. This Squadron has ſome Land Forces on board, and is bound to the Havannah; but one of the Ships is to part from it in a certain Latitude, and proceed to Vera Cruz, whither ſhe carries a great Quantity of Quick Silver, which begins to be wanted in that Colony.

For two or three Weeks paſt a Gang of Villains has infeſted this Place; they are maſked and well armed; they enter People's Houſes in the Night, and murder thoſe who make any Reſiſtance, and carry off every thing that is not too heavy for them. Theſe Miſcreants very lately broke open the Houſe of a rich Merchant, who was at Supper with ſome of his Friends, and his Wife and Children: They murdered Part of the Company and locked up the Reſt in a Cellar; after which they ſat down without the leaſt Concern by the dead Bodies, and drank up ſeveral Bottles of Wine; then pillaged the Houſe, and made off. The Puniſhment for ſuch Wretches is too mild in Spain; Impriſonment, which is oftentimes the only one they undergo, not being a ſufficient Check to the Commiſſion of ſuch Crimes. We ſhall ſoon have all our public Roads infeſted by other Vagabonds, Bohemians, known here by the Name of Gitanos, who were baniſhed the Kingdom by the late King, but are ſaid to be returning from the Iſland of Fermentaro where they had taken Refuge.

LONDON, May 5.

The Lord Anſon Tranſport, lying off the Red-Houſe, Deptford, which was formerly the old Centaur Man of War, the laſt of ſix large Tranſports to carry 1800 Soldiers, with ſix Months Proviſions, is ordered to ſail forthwith for Portſmouth, to receive the Troops on board, and join the Convoy; but upon what Service not known.

Three Martinico Ships, and three French Turkey Ships, are taken.

The French Ambaſſador at Stockholm has preſented to the Diet a Memorial, wherein he makes a great Parade of the fine Diſpoſitions of all the Belligerant Powers for putting an End to the War, but at the ſame Time ſets forth, "How neceſſary it is, in Circumſtances ſo important, to reinforce the Swediſh Army, and to put it in a State to purſue its Operations efficaciouſly, as the only Means of advancing the Negociations at the intended Congreſs."

There has been a deſperate Engagement in the Canal of Malta, between ſix Malteſe Veſſels, and five of Tripoli, wherein two of the latter were ſunk, and one, of 20 Guns, taken.

May 9. They write from Hamburgh, that on the 21ſt ult. a Pruſſian Detachment came to demand a Contribution of 80,000 Crowns from the Town of Jever, ſituated in the County of Oldenbourg, belonging to the Prince of Anhalt Zerbſt; Notice of which was immediately ſent to the King of Denmark, to whom Oldenbourg belongs.

They write from Vienna of the 18th ult. that they had a certain Account, that Gen. Laudohn had an Army of 35,000 Men under his Command in Sileſia; and that 30,000 Ruſſians were traverſing Poland to join him, after which Junction they would be able to face the King of Pruſſia.

An Order is ſent from the Lords of the Treaſury to the Officers of the Mint, to coin 100,000 l. in 7s. Pieces of Gold, on a Dye of his preſent Majeſty.

M. de Buſſey, firſt Clerk of the Department for foreign Affairs, is expected here from France, to execute a Commiſſion previous to the Meeting of the Congreſs.

All the general Officers, and others, who were at Paris, were ordered to ſet out the firſt Week in this Month for their Corps in Germany.

We hear that eight Men more will, in a few Days, be draughted out of each Company in the Three Regiments of Foot Guards, in order to be ſent to Germany.

May 12. They write from Bruſſels of the 4th, that the reiterated Enterprize of the Engliſh upon Belleiſle, juſt at the Time that a Congreſs was agreed on, and they were treating about a proviſional Suſpenſion of Arms, ſeemed to have alienated the pacific Diſpoſition of the Court of France; and that a Courier, whom the Duke de Choiſeul diſpatched on the 24th ult. to the Prince de Gallitzin the Ruſſian Ambaſſador at London, was charged with a Letter to that Lord, praying him to inform the Britiſh Miniſtry, that their Manner of Proceeding, in the preſent Circumſtances, was not very proper to eſtabliſh the Confidence which muſt be the Baſis of all Negociations; and the ſaid Courier's Diſpatches, they further ſay, tended to determine definitively, whether, during the holding of the future Congreſs, the Operations ſhould be continued, or a Suſpenſion of Arms take place before the 15th of May.

A very grand Equipage is preparing for Lord Egremont, who goes as one of his Majeſty's Plenipotentiaries to the Congreſs of Augſbourg. A fine State-Coach is making, and near finiſhed, and there are purchaſed three Sets of the fineſt Horſes that England can produce.

Some fine Braſs Cannon, of very light Weight, are finiſhed in the Tower, and preparing to be ſent into Germany. There are likewiſe two grand Pieces, forty-two Pounders, now curiouſly engraved, with the Arms and Titles of his preſent Majeſty, with many curious Devices, and the Arms of Lord Ligonier.

Eight beautiful Horſes, all brought up in this Kingdom, are now training up here for the Uſe of General Yorke, in his Embaſſy to the Congreſs at Augſbourg.

It is ſaid ſeveral Officers of the Cuſtoms in London, who have accepted of ſuperior Places in the Cuſtom-Houſe at Quebec, together with many private Families, a Reinforcement of Troops, and a great Quantity of military Stores, will ſhortly ſail for that Place; as will ſeveral other Families and Stores for Guadaloupe.

ST. JAGO DE LA VEGA (Jamaica) May 30.

On Tueſday arrived from a Cruize his Majeſty's Ship Trent, John Lindſay, Eſq; Commander, and brought in with her a French Polacca outward bound, with a Cargo of Wine and Dry Goods.

The ſame Day arrived the Brigantine Prince of Wales, from Virginia, which was taken in her Paſſage by a French Privateer, of ſix 9 Pounders, 12 Swivels, and 60 Men. Nine Frenchmen were put on board the Brig, to conduct her into the Cape: But Mr. Archdecon, of Kingſton, who with two other Engliſhmen were left Priſoners on board, took a favourable Opportunity of attacking the nine Frenchmen, and quickly obliged them to take to the Boat, then gave them ſome Proviſions, and made Shift to navigate the Brig ſafe into Port, after ſhe had been five Days in Poſſeſſion of the Enemy.

June 6. On Sunday arrived the Othello, Cappes, from Africa; and the Hawk private Ship of War, Capt. Brown, from a Cruize, having taken ſeveral Prizes.

June 20. Laſt Saturday arrived in a Flag of Truce from Hiſpaniola, Captains Hamilton, of the Lady Juliana, Creichton, of the Shirley, Deverſon, of the Thomas, belonging to London; Captains Whitlow, of the Cunliffe, and Cook, of the Brig George, belonging to Liverpool; being Part of the laſt Fleet from Cork, taken by two French Frigates, of 32 and 34 Guns, off Porto Rico, the 20th of April laſt, and carried into Port Louis.

Alſo came down in the ſaid Flag of Truce, Capt. Keiling, of the Snow Prince Ferdinand, belonging to New-York, taken coming from Coracoa by a French Privateer of 14 Guns. And Captain M'Gulpin, Commander of a Carolina Veſſel.

The abovementioned Veſſels from Cork were unloaded by the French at Port Louis with the utmoſt Diſpatch, and their Impatience to make ſpeedy Sale of the Cargoes, induced them to ſell Meſs Beef, Tongues, &c. at a Piſtole a Barrel; being, it is ſaid, in great Fear of ſome of our Men of War going in there.

On the 3d Inſtant ſailed from Port Louis, two French Ships of the Line, and the two Frigates abovementioned, deeply laden with Indico for Old France: They cruized off the Port all Day, and in the Night bore away. Many Perſons have conjectured, that theſe Veſſels intend to intercept our Fleet homeward bound, of whoſe preciſe Time of ſailing they long had Notice. The French Commodore communicated in Confidence to a Gentleman ſince arrived here, that he had Orders to cruize in the North-American Paſſage ſix Weeks. This, however, is looked upon as a Fineſſe, and it is ſuppoſed that they went round the Cape to join other Veſſels ready to ſail, and would make the beſt of their Way home, without looking for Prizes, as they were ſo deeply laden.

On Tueſday arrived at Port Royal his Majeſty's Ship the Centaur, Arthur Uſher, Eſq; Commander, and brought in with her a French Ship named the Sainte Anne, pierced for 60, but carrying 40 Guns, with 350 Men; taken by the Hampſhire and Centaur on Sunday laſt, bound from Petit-Guave to Breſt, laden with Sugar, Indico, &c. eſteemed worth 80,000 l.

CHARLES-TOWN, (South-Carolina,) June 27.

No Advices have been received from the Army commanded by Colonel Grant ſince the 13th Inſtant, which were dated the 5th: But there are ſome Letters this Week from Fort Prince George, and of the 12th, which mention the whole croſſing Keeowee River, and marching forward early in the Morning on the 7th (Lieut. Col. Laurens with them) leaving there only 120 Invalids, in Lieu of the old Garriſon, with Capt. John Campbell, of Col. Burton's; ſince which no more Intelligence had been received from or concerning them, than if there was no Army in the Country, altho' ſome Cherokees daily paſſed and repaſſed to and from the Fort, where Capt. Mackintoſh ſtill commands. The Indians who ſurrendered themſelves, and obtained Col. Grant's Permiſſion to plant at Keeowee, remained quiet there; they exceeded 100, with very few Men amongſt them, but the Tale of Eſtatowih was of the Number.

Twelve Indians, ſaid to be Creeks, are juſt come to Town, but their Errand is ſuppoſed to be of no Conſequence. Perhaps they are only come in Expectation of ſome Preſents, which is the general Buſineſs of that Nation.

Col. Byrd, with 1000 effective Men, beſides Officers, is ſaid to have marched the 15th of laſt Month from Auguſta County in Virginia, to meet Col. Grant in the Cherokees Country.

July 4. The Indians who came to Town laſt Saturday are ſtill here; they are Creeks.——For want of an Interpreter their Buſineſs is not known.

July 11. Letters received from Auguſta, dated the 30th ult. adviſe, that moſt of the Chicaſahs who went from thence in April and May laſt, to join the Army commanded by Colonel Grant, on the preſent Expedition againſt the Cherokees, had returned thither ſome Days before, and brought in two Indian Scalps, which they pretended to have got by ſurprizing a ſmall Town in the Cherokee Nation: And that they reported as follows, "That on the fourth Day of the Army's March from Keeowee (ſay 10th of June) they were attacked by the Cherokees, who fired upon them, unſeen, from Morning till Noon, killed 24 Men, and wounded 55 more; but that the Rangers being ordered to ſurround the Place whence the Smoke was perceived to iſſue; moſt of the Cherokees in that Ambuſcade were either cut to Pieces by them, or trampled to Death by their Horſes: That upon this the reſt of the Cherokees fled, and were purſued by Colonel Grant, who had burnt ſeven Towns in the Middle-Settlements, deſtroyed all the Proviſions he found, and turned the Horſes into the Fields to eat up the growing Corn: That they remained with the Army three Days after the Action, during which there had been no Firing on either Side; and that Colonel Grant was preparing to move forward."

According to the ſame Letters, it was no longer a Doubt by whom Thompſon the Trader was killed, near Butler's Creek. Two Lower Creeks, of the Cowetas, committed that Murder, and carried the Plunder openly into their Towns. The Young Twin's elder Brother, by extra Wife of Malatchia, was one of them; the other was a Fellow who about the Time of Thompſon's ſetting out from Auguſta, had the Impudence to bring back the ſtolen Beaſt, and demanded a conſiderable Reward; which Mr. Rae refuſing to give, and cauſing the Horſe to be taken next Day, the Indian went away in a very ill Humour. On his Return, he, with the Twin's Brother met with Thompſon, killed him, and took his Goods; and on his Arrival in the Coweta Town, publickly declared, that he had committed the Murder and Robbery, by Way of taking Satisfaction for the Affront he had received. The bringing the Plunder openly into the Coweta Town, obliged the Headmen to take ſome Notice of it, which otherwiſe they probably would have avoided; and accordingly, we hear, they have ſent a Talk either here or to Georgia, expreſſing great Concern at what had happened, terming it the Iſſue of a drunken Frolick, and deſiring it may be paſſed over and forgot, and that the Trade may be kept open and continued as uſual.——One Letter mentions, that the Young Twin being informed of this Affair at Mr. Galpin's, at Silver-Bluff, immediately diſpatched two Fellows to the Cowetas, to put the Murderer to Death——if they chuſe to catch him.

Laſt Sunday Morning an Expreſs arrived from Fort Prince George, with Letters dated the 28th ult. confirming the Accounts which had been received the Day before from Auguſta, with little Variation. Theſe mention 20 Chicaſahs and two Catawbas returning thither from the Army on the 15th, and reporting there nearly the ſame as at Auguſta; but obſerve, that the Scalps they had were more likely to be thoſe of two Cherokees, who had croſſed Keeowee River a few Hours before they arrived, and in the Way that they came. At Fort Prince George they had heard nothing of the Army ſince it moved from thence, but what the Indians reported; and from their Reports it was ſuppoſed there had been ſome Skirmiſh, at the Beginning of which theſe People ran away. The ſame Letters aſſure, that Colonel Grant had upwards of 40 Days Proviſion with him, for a greater Number of Men than the Army conſiſted of; and intimate, that no News from his Head-Quarters was expected in leſs than ten Days. It was ſuppoſed, that after deſtroying the Towns in the Middle-Settlements, Colonel Grant would proceed to the Valley, and deſtroy the Towns and Proviſions there.

BOSTON, July 20.

We hear from Halifax, that on the 22d and 23d of laſt Month, His Majeſty's Forces in Garriſon there, with the Corps of Engineers, and that Part of the Provincial Troops lately arrived from Boſton, encamped on the Common and the neighbouring Ground, to be ready for proceeding on his Majeſty's Works.

We hear from Newport, Rhode-Iſland, That on Thurſday laſt a ſorrowful Accident befel a poor labouring Man on board a Veſſel where they were hoiſting out Sugars, a Hogſhead ſlipt from the Tackle juſt as they were receiving it from the Veſſel on the Wharff, ſtruck the poor Man on the Breaſt, and ſo bruiſed him, that he expired in one Hour after.

Laſt Thurſday Afternoon arrived here the Cheſterfield Man of War of 50 Guns, Capt. Scarſe, with two large Storeſhips from England:——The Cheſterfield left Torbay the 25th of May, having under her Convoy three Maſt Ships, the above Storeſhips, and 10 or 12 ſail of other Veſſels bound to North-America; and Yeſterday the Man of War with one of the Storeſhips ſailed for Halifax, the other, it is ſaid, is bound to New-York.

A Veſſel arrived at Charleſtown laſt Friday in 16 Days from Newfoundland: She brings Advice, that Mr. Winthrop had a fine Obſervation of the Tranſit of Venus, the 6th of June laſt.

We hear that the Maſſachuſetts Sloop, on board of which was Mr. Winthrop, was arrived at Halifax, on her Return from Newfoundland.

NEW-YORK, July 23.

Laſt Monday Afternoon the Top of the Steeple of the new Dutch Church in this City, was ſtruck with Lightning, which beat off ſome of the Shingles in the crooked Courſe of its Direction, and ſet the Building on Fire, but it was immediately extinguiſhed, and the Damage was very inconſiderable. It is ſaid this is the third Time this Church has been ſtruck with Lightning—probably occaſioned by its Situation.

The ſame Evening a Farmer's Barn, near Ten Mile Run, in New-Jerſey, with a conſiderable Quantity of Wheat, and other Grain, being all his Harveſt, was ſet on Fire by the Lightning, and intirely conſumed. Alſo a Houſe was ſtruck near Hell-Gate, which ſplit a Beam in the Cellar, but no Perſon was hurt.

The ſame Day the Sloop Marquis of Granby, Captain Smith, arrived here in about four Weeks from Quebec, with Cloathing for General Amherſt's Regiment. By him we have an Account of three Men of War and a Tender cruiſing in the River, off the Harbour's Mouth.

July 27. Thurſday laſt Capt. Robert Rogers embarked for South-Carolina, to take upon him the Command of Captain Demere's Company of Rangers.

A Letter from Dominico, dated June 11, 1761.

"Lord Rollo, in the Sutherland, with our Tranſports, one of the Highlanders, and one of the Royal Welch, arrived at Guadaloupe the 3d Inſtant, which was the Place of Rendezvous; and the next Day we were ordered for this Place, with three Men of War, and 300 Men of the 4th Regiment from Guadaloupe, to take Poſt here, which we did on Saturday laſt, with the Loſs of two Men killed, and four wounded."

Friday laſt Part of the 40th Regiment came down from Albany, and encamped on the Eaſt End of Staten-Iſland. As did alſo Part of the Firſt Battalion of Royal-Americans. And,

On Saturday another Body of his Majeſty's Forces came down from Above, and encamped at the ſame Place.

We learn by Letters from Albany, that Sir William Johnſon was to ſet out for Fort De Troit about the Firſt Inſtant, the better to confirm the Indians there in his Britannic Majeſty's Intereſt.

Part of a Letter from on board the Letter of Marque Brig Porgy, Capt. Baſſet, of Philadelphia, dated Bermuda, June 26, 1761.

"We were obliged to put in here the 22d Inſtant, to refit, having been tore almoſt to Pieces by a French Privateer Sloop of 12 Guns, and 120 Men, on the 12th paſt, about 25 Leagues S. E. by S. from Cape-Henlopen: At 7 o'Clock in the Morning we engaged each other (the Sea ſmooth, and light Wind) which continued till Twelve, when Monſieur found himſelf obliged to ſheer off, conſiderably damaged, which we could obſerve, beſides her being a long Time before ſhe was able to make ſail. After the firſt Broadſide, the Frenchman hoiſted his bloody Flag, and fought under it the whole Time; three Hours of which was within Biſcuit Chuck. A great Number of Shot went through our Sides, our Sails and Rigging being like Ribbons, notwithſtanding which we had but one Man wounded, and he is likely to recover, out of only 16 that were our Complement.——We ſail from hence the firſt of July.

PHILADELPHIA, July 30.

Saturday next, we hear, his Honour the Governor ſets out for Eaſton, in order to hold a Treaty with the Indians; where there are a great Number of the Onondagoes, Cayugas, Nanticokes, Conoys, Tuteloes, Mohiccons, Shawaneſe, and Delawares.

Tueſday laſt arrived here the Royal Anne, Captain Canton, from Bermuda, with whom came Paſſenger Captain Robinſon, late of the Sloop Betſy, of Wilmington, bound to St. Chriſtophers, but was taken the 23d ult. by a Brig of 10 Guns, in Lat. 35: 37 N. Long. 71: 38 W. which Brig was taken by a French Sloop of 14 Guns, and made a Privateer of by her. They had before taken Captain Scott, in a Ship from Glaſgow to Norfolk in Virginia. And ſome Days after they took Captain Cooper, in a Sloop from Madeira for Bermuda, and a Sloop for Rhode-Iſland from the ſame Place; alſo a Schooner from Rhode-Iſland for Jamaica; which they unloaded, and gave to the Priſoners, in which they went to Bermuda. Into the Rhode-Iſland Sloop the Enemy put eight Frenchmen, and left four of her own Hands on board, who took an Opportunity of killing ſix of the French, and wounded the other two ſo badly, that they got Poſſeſſion of the Veſſel, and were returning with her, but unluckily fell in with the Privateer they had been taken by, which obliged them to take to their Boat, and in it they got ſafe to Bermuda, after being five or ſix Days at Sea, and little or nothing to eat, having thrown every Thing overboard, in order to lighten her, being cloſely purſued by the Privateer's Barge, which kept a conſtant Fire upon them from their Small Arms.

On Tueſday Night came up here Capt. Alboy, in the Sloop Lovely Jane, bound to Madeira from Bermuda, but was taken the Fifth Inſtant, in Lat. 32: 33, Long. 63, by a French Privateer Brig, of 14 Guns, and 200 Men, which had alſo taken the following Veſſels, viz. A Sloop from Madeira to St. Chriſtophers; Captain M'Cun, in a Ship from Glaſgow to Virginia; The Snow Lairn, Captain Caldwell, from Liverpool, and the Snow Nancy, Captain Graham, from Briſtol, both for this Port; A Snow from Maryland for Jamaica, ranſomed; A Sloop from Virginia to Antigua; A Schooner from Virginia; and a Sloop from Rhode-Iſland for Surrinam.——Captain Alboy left the Privateer in Lat. 38: 30, Long 55, the 14th Inſtant, and brought about Fifty of the People from the different Veſſels with him.——The Sloop fell in with a large Frigate built Letter of Marque Ship, of good Force, from Jamaica, the Captain of which being acquainted with what had happened, and the Briſtol Snow being then, it is ſaid, in Sight, he took Captain Graham and his Hands (15) on board his Veſſel, and bore away, to endeavour to re take her.

ANNAPOLIS, Auguſt 6.

We have a certain Account, that the Ship Atlas, Captain Brailey, from Briſtol, with Convicts, for this Province, is taken by a French Privateer, and carried into Bayonne.

On Friday laſt was Executed in Calvert County, a Mulatto Fellow named Roger, for breaking open the Store of Mr. James Weems, ſenior.

On Tueſday laſt Week, a Blackſmith's Shop, belonging to Joſeph Hollowfield, near Bell-Air, was Fir'd by Lightning, and burnt down; and an adjacent Houſe, wherein was his Crop of Grain.

And on Tueſday laſt, an Houſe wherein was the Grain of Mr. Edward Steward, junior, in the Fork of Patuxent, about 3 Miles due Eaſt from the above Place, was likewiſe Fir'd and Conſum'd by Lightning.

Annapolis, July 30, 1761.

THE Subscriber gives Notice, That he has now broke up Partnership with Mr. Nathaniel Adams, and desires all Persons that stand indebted to him, to come and make Payment speedily, so that he may be enabled to pay off the Demands that may come against him. He still carries on a small Trade, and sells Dry Goods, Rum, Muscovado and Loaf Sugar, Coffee, Tea, and Chocolate, Cheshire and Gloucester Cheese, Raisins, &c. at very reasonable Rates.

P 6/ R 2 THOMAS WILSON.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living near Upper-Marlborough, on the 26th of February last, a Country-born Negro Fellow named Anthony, by Trade a Cooper, about 28 Years of Age, and 5 Feet 4 Inches high. He had on an old Cotton Coat with white Metal Buttons, Cotton Breeches, a Kersey, and Swanskin Jacket, Negro Shoes and Stockings, a Felt Hat, and an Osnabrigs Shirt. But it is probable he will change his Apparel, as he had Variety of Cloaths with him. He has been used to work on board Ships in Patuxent River, and it is supposed is somewhere thereabouts.

Whoever will take up the said Negro, and bring him home, shall have Forty Shillings, beside what the Law allows, if taken in the County; and if taken out of it, Three Pounds, beside what the Law allows, paid by JOHN GANTT.

STRAYED or Stolen from the Subscriber, a large Dark Bay Horse, about Fourteen Hands and a Half high, he has no Brand, or if any, unknown, he paces slow, and goes hard, has been lately trimmed near his Ears, has a short Switch Tail, and hanging Mane, and what is remarkable in his going, he is apt to shift his Feet when Forced in a Pace. Whoever brings the Horse to the Subscriber near Port-Tobacco, or to Mr. Colmore Beanes at Nottingham, shall have Twenty Shillings Reward. THOMAS CONTEE. 2

June 26, 1761.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living in Baltimore County, an Irish Servant Woman named Margaret Earley, she is short and thick, aged about 40, is pretty much freckled, and has red Hair. Her Apparel is a Country Linen Petticoat, an Osnabrigs or Holland Shift, Cotton Jacket, an old quilted Petticoat, Red Cloak, &c. &c. 2

Whoever takes up the said Woman, and brings her to the Subscriber, shall have Forty Shillings if taken in the Province, and if out of it, Two Pistoles, paid by SAMUEL WORTHINGTON.

July 27, 1761.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living in Frederick County, on the 20th Instant, an Irish Convict Servant Man named Thomas Carle, but it is thought he will change his Name. He is about 25 Years of Age, 5 Feet 2 Inches high. He has lost his Right Arm. His Apparel uncertain, and it is thought he will endeavour to pass for a Beggar. 2

Whoever takes up the said Servant, and brings him to the Subscriber, shall be paid all reasonable Charges besides what the Law allows, if taken Ten Miles from Home. JOHN ADAMSON.

June 18, 1761.

WENT from the Snow Antelope's Stern, at Sewall's Point, a Carvil built BOAT, about 15 Feet long, newly scraped, and painted with a Stroke of Yellow below the Moulding, the Moulding Blue, and betwixt the Mouldings Black; her Bottom is payed with White Lead and Tallow, and she has a Rudder and Iron Tiller. 4

Whoever takes up and secures the said Boat, and gives Notice thereof either to Mr. Robert Dick at Bladensburg, or to Mr. Robert Hasty at Bush-River, shall have Two Pistoles Reward.

DANIEL CARROLL.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living in Annapolis, on the 21st of this Instant July, a Convict Servant Man named John Benn, by Trade a Taylor, born in England, and speaks a little upon the Country Dialect; his Voice is soft and smooth; he is about 5 Feet 8 or 9 Inches high. He took with him two Check Shirts, one white Ditto ruffled at the Bosom, a dark colour'd Coat much mended after being tore, Fall Shoes, coarse Castor Hat, a Pair of mix'd German Serge Breeches. He wears his own short brown Hair turn'd up before. He will in all Probability change his Name and Apparel; but the Apprehender may know him to be a Taylor by the fore Finger of his left Hand being prick'd with the Needle. He has also taken with him a Bay Mare about 13½ Hands high, with a Ridge Mane, branded on the near Buttock, but the Brand unknown. 3

Whoever will take up the said Servant, and bring him to his Master, shall have Five Pounds Reward, beside what the Law allows; and Twenty Shillings for the Mare. JOHN DUCKER.

Baltimore, July 1761.

RELIGION, the crowning Excellence of intelligent Nature, claims the Approbation and close Attention of every reasonable Being, who expects future Bliss. We are bound from Principles of Gratitude and Interest to promote the Honour and Worship of the supreme Mind, as necessary to our own Prosperity, the Good of Society, and future Happiness of Man. Animated by these interesting Motives, we, of the Presbyterian Persuasion in this Town, desire, not from Party Views, but from real Principle, to purchase a Lot of Ground to erect a decent Church for Divine Service, in which we may worship GOD according to our Consciences. Upon Enquiry we find ourselves as yet insufficient to raise such a Sum as is necessary to accomplish such an important Design, beg Leave therefore to sollicit the Generosity of our Fellow-Christians to assist and encourage us in compleating a small Lottery, at a Time when the Benevolence of our Countrymen is so well tried in this Way. We hope our Claim to the public Attention is equal to any that has sollicited their Notice, and humbly expect that we shall meet with general Encouragement.
